(Enter Mouth 1 and Mouth 2. They stand next to each other)

- Mouth 1: I enjoy a good old gossip with my friends at work.
- Mouth 2: When others gossip, I try not to join in and remain silent although it is very hard.
- Mouth 1: If I dislike something I don't see why I can't have a big moan about it.
- Mouth 2: It's hard to be thankful when things are tough but I try to stay thankful for all that God has done for me.

(Exit Mouths and enter Eyes)

- Eye 1: I watch anything I want to on television – it won't affect me.
- Eye 2: I am very careful what I watch on television as I don't want to fill my mind with bad images.
- Eye 1: If I don't like the look of someone I don't see why I should bother with them.
- Eye 2: I won't judge people by their appearance, as I can so easily make mistakes and not see what the Master sees.

(Exit eyes and enter hands)

Hand 1: I like to do as I please. So this Saturday, I'll be staying in bed all morning, going to the gym all afternoon and then heading out to the cinema in the evening. The rest of the family can clean up the house after Friday night's party.

Hand 2: I will serve when I have the opportunity to. So this Saturday I will be cleaning up the house after Friday night's party and then helping dad with the gardening as he has a bad back.

(Exit hands and enter hearts)

Heart 1: I love shopping....there is nothing better than the thrill of buying something new. I also love David Beckham....what a hunk.....perhaps I love him more than shopping.

Heart 2: I love Jesus.....who else would die for me? What love, what kindness. He has become my first love.

Heart 1: I will not forgive people who have hurt me. I will continually dwell on the hurt, and look for ways of getting my own back.

Heart 2: I will choose to forgive people who hurt me, although forgiving others is so hard. I will choose to forgive because I have been forgiven.

(Exit hearts.)

Narrator: "Do not offer the parts of your body to sin, as instruments of wickedness, but rather offer yourselves to God, as those who have been brought from death to life; and offer the parts of your body to him as instruments of righteousness" - Romans chapter six, verse thirteen
